Local and Otherwise.

Rain is much needed. Blackberries are ripe and on the market.

Olin Cameron spent last week in Detroit and Ann Arbor.

The little daughter of Mrs. Herbert Brabb is ill with scarlet fever.

Mrs. Earl Loree, of Croswell, was here this week on a visit to her parents.

Dwight Ferguson and family, of Cincinnati, Ohio, visited in Yale the past few days.

Mark Brown, grand son of Mrs. K. C. Holden, is with her at Detroit, visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Holden.

Ray Moran, clerk in the Mitchell drug store at Capac, was in Yale Friday last calling on his many friends.

Ed Sheehy, who has been confined to his home for about two weeks, is able to walk down town and is feeling much better.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Beamer are visiting in Kalamazoo this week and will spend a few days at Gougac Lake.

Luke Conroy spent the weekend in Detroit. His little granddaughter, Frances Cranny, returned with him for a few days' visit.

Lloyd Holden and family were up from Detroit the latter part of last week. Lloyd's mother returned with them to spend a few weeks visiting.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Adams, of Port Huron, are rejoicing over the arrival of a boy, Robert Morgan, in their home during the week. We offer congratulations.

Vera and Gladys Wallace were home from Detroit over Sunday. Gladys has resigned her position there and as we stated last week, will soon start for California.

H. P. McCabe, of Emmett, candidate on the Republican ticket for the nomination of Register of Deeds of St. Clair county, was in Yale Tuesday calling on friends.

Supt. A. T. Greenman and Mrs. Greenman have returned to Yale from Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti where they have spent the summer at the University and State Normal. We welcome them home.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Parmlee, of Port Huron, and Mrs. W. N. Armstrong, of Concord, have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Herbert this week. On Tuesday a dinner party was given at the Herbert home in their honor.

A series of base ball games has been arranged between the Emmett and Capac teams for the championship of St. Clair county. The first one of the series will be played at the Emmett diamond on Sunday next. Game will be called at 3:00 o'clock p. m., sharp. If you want to see a snappy contest plan to attend.

Joe McLellan met with an accident about three weeks ago. While on a platform in a barn north of Peck, where he was working, he fell through an opening to the barn floor, a distance of thirty feet, breaking his shoulder blade and otherwise injuring himself about the body. He is out around again but unable to do any work.

Chris Danielson and Mrs. Clara M. Streeter, both of Yale, were united in marriage on Monday, August 28th, at Port Huron. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Jacob Wulffmann. Mr. and Mrs. Danielson have returned to Yale and taken up their residence on Park avenue. The Expositor joins with their many friends in extending congratulations.

Mrs. Oscar Denison and children Pauline and Buddy, who have been staying with her parents during the past year, on account of her mother's health, are leaving this week for Jackson, their former home, and from that city they will go to Milwaukee, Wis., where Mr. Denison is located. It is with regret their friends see them depart. The Presbyterian church loses an efficient worker in Mrs. Denison who is well liked and popular wherever she goes.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Middleton and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jaynes went to Arcona, Ont., on Sunday to celebrate the 66th anniversary of the wedding of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jaynes, aged 87 and 82 years, respectively. There were five children, four grand children and three great grand children present. The christening of one of the great grand children was one of the events of the occasion. Seldom do we hear of a couple having been married 66 years.—Croswell Jeffersonian.

Richard Houghton of Fairgrove visited in Yale the latter part of last week.

J. A. Rapley, Roswell Green and families of North Branch were in Yale the last of the week.

T. M. Udell and family are spending the week in different parts of the state with relatives and friends.

E. A. Curvin, of Coburg, Ont., is here visiting his brothers, Justin and Thomas, after an absence of twenty years.

Elam Sloat, who has spent several months in Yale with his daughter, Mrs. John Wark, went to Port Huron Saturday last to visit a while with his son Charles.

We have had very threatening weather for the past week and expected rain each day. Tuesday furnished a mist. The atmosphere has been very muggy and depressing.

The Yale base ball team is at Imlay City today. Our boys beat this fast playing bunch early in the season by the score of 2 to 0. Here's hoping the Yale team gets more runs today and their opponents less than in the previous game.

The way rents have risen in Detroit may be gauged by the corner at Farmer street and Monroe avenue. The corner store rents for $850 a month, the next two for $500 each, the next one for $350, and the last one for $300. The building was once a long store and people in Detroit remember when the whole ground floor rented for $20 a month.
